The Pardes Summer Program

Spend three weeks in Israel learning Jewish texts, in havruta, and being inspired by our renowned faculty. Study Torah and Talmud as well as other classic texts, contemporary issues, or spirituality. There's also the chance to learn Hebrew, with an optional Ulpan course. Throughout, you'll be immersed in a diverse and dynamic community, living in Jerusalem and making friendships for life.

The program runs in June, July and August. For more information, dates, affordable tuition fees, and available grants, contact summer@pardes.org.il

The Pardes Executive Learning Seminar

Jerusalem, June 28 to July 2, 2009

The Pardes Executive Seminar is geared to business executives, professionals and community leaders who wish to combine the experience of visiting Israel with an immersion into the study of classical Jewish sources.
